Entry regulations "Craft in Focus" festival 2014
Amsterdam, 23 – 25 May 2014

The festival is open to film and video productions in any high-quality format, with a preference for DCP.

To apply, please send a DVD screener (PAL, region free) and a completed and signed entry form to Craft in Focus. The DVD will stay in the possession of the festival for internal/educational use only.

Apart from the DVD, please send the following items by e-mail to info@windymiller.nl:

- A synopsis (maximum 120 words)
- A short biography / filmography of the filmmaker.
- Three photos / stills of the production to be included in the festival catalogue and on the website, and for promotional purposes (300 dpi.).

The entry must be in Dutch or English or have Dutch or English subtitles.

There is no submission fee.

Filmmakers of productions selected for screening will be notified before April 23, 2014. The complete program will be published on the Windy Miller website by the end of April, 2014.

In case of selection, the copyright holder automatically authorizes Craft in Focus to screen the film during the Festival free of charge, and to use publicity material about the author(s) and/or the film, as well as trailers (not exceeding 3 minutes) or a 3 minutes clip of the production for promotional purposes through public media like television and Internet. The clip/trailer may also be included in the Craft in Focus website.

Submission deadline: April 1, 2014.
All the material, including the DVD screener, must have arrived at the festival office by April 1, 2014.
